

Madrid's Shopping Districts

Calle Preciados - In the heart of Madrid's Historic center, sandwiched between Puerta del Sol and Gran Via

Types of shops here:

- ~ Parfois
- ~ Zara
- ~ Springfield
- ~ Sfera

Gran Via - Madrid's "Broadway" avenue, and prime shopping area

Types of shops here:

- ~ Aristocrazy - jewelry
- ~ Casa del Libro (Book House)
- ~ C&A - clothing
- ~ Pull and Bear
- ~ Primark (biggest one in Madrid)

Paseo de la Castellana - Business/financial neighborhood near Santiago Benabeu Stadium (Real Madrid)

Types of shops here:

- ~ Zara (the big one)
- ~ Sfera
- ~ Tiger
- ~ Stradivarius
- ~ Mango

Calle Serrano - Centered in the Salamanca Neighborhood, Madrid's wealthiest avenue

Types of shops here:

- ~ Cartier
- ~ Adolfo Dominguez
- ~ Carolina Herrera
- ~ Yves Saint Laurent
- ~ Longchamp

- ~ Gucci
- ~ El Corte Inglés
- ~ Mango

Goya District - Salamanca District, another one of Madrid's wealthy neighborhoods

Types of shops here:

- ~ El Corte Inglés
- ~ Media Market - Electronics
- ~ H&M
- ~ Tiger - a shop of things too cute not to buy; stationary, small home decor, cards, etc. "The things you need, the things you dream, and the things you didn't know existed" - Tiger

Malasaña District - Vintage, second hand stores, unique boutiques

Types of shops here:

- ~ Spanish boutique brands
- ~ Spanish crafts and accessories

Chueca District - Claimed by many as the Gay neighborhood, Chueca is a place that has entertainment all day and night, as well as great boutique finds and shopping

Types of shops here:

- ~ The American Store - yup, a store full of American food and snack items
- ~ Boutique shoe stores, "made in Spain" leather
- ~ Boutique type of coat shops